e. Transportation costs to return Goods to the Seller and the manufacturer will be the responsibility of the Buyer.

10. TERMINATION. This Agreement may be terminated by either Party, at any time, on provision of five (5) days prior written notice to the other Party; provided, however, that orders for Goods manufactured to the Buyer's specifications may only be terminated prior to the commencement of production. Immediately on the termination of the Agreement for any reason the Buyer must return to the Seller all documents, technical data, and equipment loaned by the Seller to Buyer for the purposes of or in connection with the Agreement.

11. DEFAULT AND REMEDIES.

a. If either Party terminates this Agreement because of the other Party's default, the non-breaching Party, in addition to all rights it has under this Agreement, shall have the right to exercise any and all remedies available at law or in equity (including any remedies afforded each Party under the North Carolina Uniform Commercial Code). All rights and remedies are cumulative, and the election of one remedy shall not preclude another. Any termination shall be without prejudice to accrued rights. Specifically, a termination due to default of delivery or payment for the Goods required hereunder shall not in any manner affect or terminate the rights and obligations of the Parties hereto that have accrued hereunder prior or subsequent to such default in delivery or payment. Notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this Agreement, the obligations intended to survive termination or expiration of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.

b. If any of the Goods do not conform to their description or the Seller's standard warranty, the Buyer's exclusive remedy shall be the replacement of such nonconforming Goods. All Goods claimed to be nonconforming must be shipped to the Seller, at the Seller's expense, and will be returned, repaired or replaced, within a reasonable time. The Seller's acceptance of any Goods so shipped shall not be deemed an admission that the Goods are nonconforming and, if the Seller finds that any Goods returned are not nonconforming, such Goods will be returned to the Buyer and the Buyer will be responsible for any shipping charges incurred by the Seller

i. If the Agreement is terminated by the Seller based on the Buyer's breach, then the full price for all Goods delivered and not yet paid for shall be immediately due and payable, notwithstanding that the normal terms of payment as set out in Section 3 above may not have been exceeded; and

ii. at the Seller's discretion, it may either sell to the Buyer or dispose of elsewhere Goods in the course of manufacture or manufactured and not yet delivered, or delivered and not yet paid for; provided, however, that if the Seller elects to dispose of such Goods elsewhere the Buyer will be liable to pay to the Seller any loss incurred by the Seller as a result thereof.

12. INDEMNIFICATION.

a. The Seller shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Buyer against all claims, actions, damages, losses, liabilities, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of or caused by any breach of any of the representations, undertakings, or contracts made by the Seller in connection with any claim of breach of any express or implied warranty or negligence or strict liability, product liability, or similar theory in connection with the production, design, sale, or use of any of the Goods purchased by the Buyer.

b. Likewise, the Buyer shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Seller against all claims, actions, damages, losses, liabilities, and expenses, including reasonable outside attorneys' fees, arising out of or caused by any breach of any of the representations, undertakings, or agreements made by the Buyer under or pursuant to this Agreement.

13. ASSIGNMENT. Neither Party may assign its respective rights or delegate performance of its respective duties under this Agreement without the other Party's express prior written consent.

14. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS. All references in this Agreement to the Parties shall be deemed to include, as applicable, a reference to their respective successors and assigns. The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of the Parties.

15. FORCE MAJEURE. The Seller and the Buyer shall not be considered in default hereunder or be liable for any failure to perform or delay in performing any provisions of this Agreement in the customary manner to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by any reason beyond its control, including any act of God, fire, explosions, hostilities, or war, declared or undeclared, strike or work stoppage involving either Party's employees, or governmental restrictions; provided, however, that the Party declaring force majeure shall give prompt written notice to the other Party of the commencement, nature, and termination of the force majeure condition. The Party whose performance has been interrupted by such circumstances shall use every reasonable means to resume full performance of this Agreement as promptly as possible.

16. NO IMPLIED WAIVER. The failure of either Party to insist on strict performance of any covenant or obligation under this Agreement, regardless of the length of time for which such failure continues, shall not be deemed a waiver of such Party's right to demand strict compliance in the future. No consent or waiver, express or implied, to or of any breach or default in the performance of any obligation under this Agreement shall constitute a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of the same or any other obligation.

17. GOVERNING LAW, VENUE, JURISDICTION and ATTORNEYS' FEES. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the state of Tennessee. Furthermore, any and all claims, actions, suits, or proceedings regarding any dispute arising out of this Agreement shall be instituted or prosecuted in any Tennessee state court sitting in Knox County, Tennessee, or federal court sitting in Knoxville, Tennessee. The parties irrevocably submit and consent to the personal jurisdiction over it in any such court in any such suit, action or proceeding.

a. In the event of any other suit, action or proceeding at law or in equity by either of the parties hereto against the other by reason of any matter or thing arising out of this Agreement, the prevailing party shall recover from the other its costs and expenses relating thereto, including its reasonable attorneys' fees for the maintenance or defense of said action, suit, or proceeding, including but not limited to a lawsuit instituted by Seller to enforce the collection of any amounts owed by Buyer under this Agreement.

18. COUNTERPARTS/ELECTRONIC SIGNATURES. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument. For purposes of this Agreement, use of a facsimile, e-mail, or other electronic medium shall have the same force and effect as an original signature.

19. SEVERABILITY. Whenever possible, each provision of this Agreement will be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any respect under any applicable law or rule in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability will not affect any other provision or any other jurisdiction, but this Agreement will be reformed, construed, and enforced in such jurisdiction as if such invalid, illegal, or unenforceable provisions had never been contained herein.

20. ENTIRE AGREEMENT and MODIFICATION. This Agreement constitutes the final, complete, and exclusive statement of the agreement of the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes any and all other prior and contemporaneous contracts and understandings, both written and oral, between the Parties. Further, this Agreement may be supplemented, amended, or modified only by the mutual agreement of the Parties, and such amendment must be in writing and signed by both Parties.

21. AFFIRMATION OF THE PARTIES. The Parties affirm that they have entered into this Agreement freely, voluntarily, and without reliance on any promises, representations, or other statements not contained in this Agreement and have read and understood this Agreement.

22. PARTIES.
