Michelle,

That is fine to go ahead and process. This was contained within their original permit application, and was able to confirm with Snow.

Thanks.

Good morning,

I hope you had a great weekend!

I have a customer reaching out about Building H over at 404 E Jackson Blvd., which was only previously permitted as a slab.

Do you need an additional Zoning Permit or anything for the proposed building now, or are they okay to proceed with their building application?

Thank you!!

Sincerely,
