Ma'am,

I understand. However, I'm still requesting a refund. What's the process and how long it takes? Thanks and take care.

Respectfully,
Jovette Walsh

I can refund the money – but please note even with a sunroom you will have to have footings and that will mean going through with a septic inspection. So when they come in for permits they will be paying the same fee and going through the process anyway.

Good morning Mrs. Bethune,

Hope all is well with you. I'm requesting a refund for the amount ($100) I paid on 31MAR23. I contacted another contractor and it was explained to me the difference between a screened in porch and a sunroom. I was under the impression that they were the same.

The new contractor is going to request all necessary permits needed in order to build a screened in porch. What's the process in order to request a refund? Additionally, how long the refund process takes? Thanks in advance and take care.

Respectfully,
Jovette Walsh
