FYI...

There will be a couple coming in today or tomorrow to start the process for an existing farm building (they did get permits for that) to be turned into a place for weddings. Per Randy, they are exempt from zoning, since it is considered agricultural. They have a bathroom and kitchen built without permits. And will need a mechanical as well, since there are units in there also. I would also say a land use since they are changing the use. I think they need to submit a detailed floor plan for approval by FM. and Bldg. also. Randy said this place is gorgeous!!
Address is 3288 Old Buies Creek Rd and the parcel is 11-0681-0039.

Thank you,
