Hello,

Our Engineer took a look at the disapproval comments made and he responded, "The interior panel is fed from a 100A breaker"

Your plans were Disapproved with the following notes:

1. AHJ is Harnett County, Not Town Of Fuquay.
2. Need information sheets on all equipment to be installed.

Good morning,

You will need to complete the attached Land Use (add the proposed work on the Addition/Accessory/Other line) & Building Applications, and submit an engineered letter along with your plans.

They will then be submitted for plan review, which takes 3-5 days.

Once approved, you may call in payment & the permit will be issued.

Sincerely,

Central Permitting Division
