Kimberly,

As long as the permit is just for new lines and the storage tank for the gas it is fine to issue the permit as long as there is nothing located in a flood hazard zone. I apologize for the delay. I have been on the road this afternoon. I hope that you have a great weekend.

Thanks,
Snow Bowden

I have McLamb's LP calling me wanting this permit. They said they are moving the tank and the lines, I didn't know if it was ok to proceed
