This property must be paid for within 2 business days from the date and time this email notification was sent to you. Your payment should be made to the Regional Sales Office provided at the end of this message. After your payment is processed, a copy of your Purchaser's Receipt and Authority to Release Property will automatically be emailed to you, based upon the email address that was provided at the time of registration, or will be either faxed or mailed to you, contingent upon the information that was provided at the time of registration.

Please note that this auction may or may not have required you (as the successful bidder) to electronically or physically sign documentation (such as the Statement of Intent) which is due to GSA at the time of payment. Please check the item description page to find out if this was a requirement:
<https://gsaauctions.gov/gsaauctions/aucdscink?SL=41QSCI18751015>
If so, please complete, sign and return to the Sales Contracting Officer listed below as soon as possible.

Property must be removed within 10 business days from the date and time this email notification was sent to you. A signed purchaser's receipt must be presented prior to removal of property to verify proof of purchase; otherwise removal will not be permitted. In addition, person(s) or agent(s) attempting removal on your behalf must provide a letter of authorization with your signature. Failure to make payment or remove the property within the specified time outlined in GSA Auctions(SM) on-line Sale Terms and Conditions constitutes a breach of contract, and your contract will be terminated. In addition to contract termination, you will lose all rights, title and interest to the property and may be liable for liquidated damages.

For your convenience, GSA Auctions(SM) accepts secure online payments. Credit card payments can be made via GSA Auctions(SM) from the "My Summary" page utilizing the "Trades" feature. Online payments are processed by pay.gov, which is a secure government-wide payment collection portal and transaction engine created and managed by the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Financial Management Service (FMS).

To make payment online, you must:

1. Login to GSA Auctions(SM) with your username and password;
2. Select the "My Summary" option located on the light blue bar line;
3. Next, select the "Trades" tab; and
4. Then, locate the awarded item you wish to pay for online and select the "PayNow" option.

GSA Auctions(SM) accepts the following credit cards: American Express, Discover/Novus, MasterCard and Visa.

Please be advised that there is a maximum limit of $24,999 (established by the Dept. of Treasury) that may be charged on your credit card.

You may contact the Regional Sales Office listed on this award notice to submit your payment or you may pay online.

Other methods of payment can be found in the online Sale Terms and Conditions. Please refer there for detail.

If you make payment by check (bank cashier's check; credit union cashier's check issued by a Federal or State chartered Credit Union; U.S. Postal Service or commercial money order; travelers' checks; official checks; properly endorsed United States Federal, State, or local government checks), you authorize GSA to process the payment as a check transaction. Checks are processed through the Over the Counter Channel Application (OTCnet). Checks will not be returned, but will be destroyed after processing.

If paying by Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) or Wire Transfer (WT), please go to <https://gsaauctions.gov/html/GSA/WireTransferForm.pdf> for the form.

Complete and submit the information to your banking institution.

Thank you for taking part in GSA Auctions(SM). Your interest in the GSA Sales program is greatly appreciated and we look forward to your continued participation in future GSA surplus property sales.
