Ok they started the open floor and they want to keep going. They don't want to pause any construction. So they decided just not to build the porch. Can we keep the original drawing and keep moving forward?

Thanks

You will have to pay a $25 revision fee and go back through EH. The permit is on HOLD until this is approved again.

Good morning,

We just realized we submitted this drawing without the back porch. Is it ok if I just send it to you here? Do I need to do anything else?

Thanks!
