Failure to comply with the Harnett County Unified Development Ordinance will force the County to seek remedies through the courts under Chapter 153A, Article 6, Section 153A-123 of the North Carolina General Statutes. Violations of the Ordinance shall constitute a misdemeanor and Harnett County has the authority to seek compliance through civil or criminal actions. A civil action shall be punishable by a fine not to exceed one hundred ($100.00) dollars and may be charged as a separate offense for each day the violation continues. A criminal action shall be punished by imprisonment not to exceed thirty (30) days. Also, the Court will be requested to impose upon you the costs of such proceedings, including attorney's fees, which might be authorized by law. Further, in accordance with the Unified Development Ordinance of Harnett County, Article XV Administration Enforcement and Penalties, Section 3.5 Right of Appeal: If any notice of violation or penalty is issued, the applicant has thirty (30) days to appeal the action of the Zoning Administrator to the Board of Adjustment. Beyond the decision of the Board of Adjustment, recourse shall be to the Courts as provided by law. The application for appeal may be obtained online at www.harnett.org or may be picked up at the Harnett County Development Services building located at 420 McKinney Parkway Lillington, NC 27546. For further information, staff may be reached by phone at (910) 893-7525 opt. 4.

Sincerely,

Randy Baker, CZO
